Words and music by Phil Campbell-Enns

Valleys will burst and the mountains will melt
C#m7 Bsus4 Asus2 Bsus4
Like wax that's poured will my judgement be felt
E Bsus4 Asus2 E
Wages be burned, all your idols laid waste
Asus2 Bsus4 Asus2 E
I will expose your shame

But in that day

In that day
C#m7 B
I'll gather the lame and those driven away
G#m A
Assemble a remnant in my holy name
F#m G#m A
Bound'ries extended and no one shall make you afraid

In that day

I am exhausted, my patience run out
You perform evil, oppress ev'ry house
Even my glory is taken away
Now I will hide my face

Hear this you rulers, you priests gone astray
This I require and these things will save
Do justice, love kindness, take humble steps
Walk in the ways I've led
