

Jonah's Lament (The Minor Prophets – Jonah)

Words and music by Phil Campbell-Enns

G D CAPO 5
Sound asleep while in the storm
C G
Ev'ry secret safely stowed
Bm7 Em
I run away and tell myself
Am7 D/F#
That I am in control
G D/F#
Leaving all that I have known
G/B C
Follow where the wind might blow
G Em
Refuse Your grace as I escape
Am D/F# G
The presence of the Lord

From beneath the deepest waves
Even there You hear me pray
As waters close and I confess
My faith has ebbed away
Set me back upon dry land
I will praise and offer thanks
Be filled with hope and always know
Deliverance from the Lord

Yet my anger reappears
With unfounded tropes and fears
The thought of loving enemies
Brings bitterness and tears
But Your steadfast love will rise
As the scales fall from my eyes
I'll one day see we cannot flee
The presence of the Lord
