Something out of nothing, beauty from a void

You create and we rejoice

F G C G/B F G C
Seeing Your world unfold

Moving of mountains and roaring of seas
Whispers in treetops and gentle summer breeze
Speak of Your great power, all declare Your might
You reveal and we delight

Baby's first cry to our very last breath
Each step a miracle, ev'ry moment blessed
Each displaying glory, 'neath Your watchful eye
You lead out and we reply

Stars in the heavens and roots in the ground
All things invisible, ev'ry smell and sound
Tell of Your great myst'ry, things we cannot know
Holy secrets You alone hold
