

Slow to anger (The Minor Prophets – Nahum)

Words and music by Phil Campbell-Enns

D A/D

CAPO 2

Slow to anger, great in power

Bm7 G

Storms and whirlwinds hear You speak

D A/D

Mountains quake and rivers run dry

Bm7 D/A G

Pastures fade the whole earth heaves

D
Still we look to the hills and see Your feet
G

Beautiful majesty revealed

Bm7 F#m7
A stronghold today, a refuge of grace

Em Asus2
A promise of rest from our pain

D
Bringing good tidings that will heal
Bm7

All of our wounds and deepest fears

Em D/F#
No longer afraid, we lift up our praise

Gsus2 Asus D
And boldly proclaim . . . Your way of peace

Thorns entangled, foes who shatter
Knees that tremble, hearts that faint
Endless strife and needless violence
Take these mindless wars away

G D/F#
Though prophets warn or righteous indignation

G D/F#
And stir up doubts regarding our salvation

G D/F#
We trust your goodness seen for generations

Em Asus
We celebrate
